Amman, Oman Air’s New Destination

Amman, Oman Air’s New Destination

As part of its never ending commitment to grow and expand its operations and services Oman Air, the flag carrier of the Sultanate of Oman is to launch a service from its hub in Muscat, across the Middle East to a new destination Amman, the Jordanian Capital.

Mr. Ziad Al Haremi
A/CEO

Mr. Ziad bin Karim Al Haremi Oman Air’s Acting Chief Executive Officer stated "This is a momentous occasion for our team. We are pleased to expand our services to meet the needs of our valued customers within this growing industry. We thank the Directorate General of Civil Aviation and Meteorologyto fly to rights us granting for Authorities Aviation Civil Jordanian the and ,Oman in Oman of Sultanate the in residents both our of benefits mutual the considering ,whereby Amman .Amman Capital Jordanian the visit to desiring travellers other as well as Jordan of Kingdom the and brotherly our both in industries Tourism and Economical our boosting in result consequently will This wise same nations

Corporate Communications & Media Department stated: “Oman Air playing a major role in making Muscat a major traffic hub in the Middle East. Oman Air’s (Omani Khanjar) an emblem of genuineness, now connecting Muscat to many major Gulf cities such as Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Al Ain, Doha, Bahrain, Kuwait, Jeddah, Dammam, Muscat, Salalah and Khasab, also Mumbai, Chennai, Trivandrum, Cochin, New Delhi and Hyderabad in the Indian Sub-continent, besides Cairo and Beirut in the Middle East. Amman is the 20th destination for our esteemed customers. This is only a stride towards a sequence of up warding operations we aim to increase in the near future.

"Oman Air operates a modern fleet of Boeing 737 (800-700) Next Generation, to reach its destinations. The Company is very resolute achieving its objectives as part of its ongoing strategy to be comparable to the paramount international airlines, in terms of the safety of operations and the quality services, presented to our valued passengers". The department concluded.