Oman Air Holidays Launches new holiday packages to the Shangri-La Barr Al Jissah Resort and Spa

Oman Air Holidays Launches new holiday packages to the Shangri-La Barr Al Jissah Resort and Spa

Oman Air Holidays has recently launched its new Shangri-La Barr Al Jissah Resort and Spa holiday packages across the GCC and Middle East markets. Committed to supporting the growth of tourism into Oman, Tim Lane Stott, Manager of Oman Air Holidays is extremely excited with the opportunity that the Shangri-La's Barr Al Jissah Resort and Spa offers for Oman.

"The Shangri-La's Barr Al Jissah Resort and Spa is an incredible asset to the Oman tourism industry offering our visitors a superb international resort destination right here in Muscat. Blessed with three hotels properties set in a magnificent location and designed to reflect the unique culture and architecture of Oman, the resort offers incredible facilities as well as extremely high standards of hotel services". Said Tim Lane Stott, Manager of Oman Air Holidays.

Mr. Time Lane Stott

Manager of Oman Air Holidays

He also said:"Since launching the Oman Air Holidays, Shangri-La Barr Al Jissah Resort and Spa product in Jan 2006, the response from both travelers and the travel trade has been very positive with an immediate interest in the resort. "The large number of guests choosing an Oman Air Holidays package to the Shangri-La Barr Al Jissah Resort and Spa has been extremely encouraging. With the convenience of our direct flights to Muscat from across the GCC region and our affordable pricing, Oman Air Holidays continues to be a popular choice for GCC clients seeking a holiday in Oman".

Oman Air is playing an essential roll in making Muscat a hub for air traffic in the Middle East, through providing all possible support to Oman Air sales offices in many countries, as well as participating in different exhibitions, seminars, and workshop worldwide. This will be having positive impact on commercial, industrial and tourist activities in Oman.