Kozhikode

Kozhikode, also known as Calicut, is the third largest city in the southern state of Kerala in India.

Kozhikode, also known as Calicut, is the third largest city in the southern state of Kerala in India. The state has a very rich ancient history, which dates back to the Sangam Age of Ancient Indian History when the Chera dynasty ruled this city. One of the most charming cities in Kerala, Calicut is a haven of natural blue seas, heritage homes, cascading waterfalls and ancient temples. The city has lush vegetation, wildlife, rivers, hills and places of worship making this place a wonderful destination for tourists.

• Exploring Kozhikode

There are a lot of places to visit and enjoy in this city, which attracts large number of tourists each year. The city has many temples, the most important of which include the Tali Temple, Trivannur Temple & Valayanad Devi Temple. The city also houses a large number of Churches and Mosques including Mother of God Church, St Mary's Church, Jami Mosque, and Mishkal Masjid to name a few. Other places of interest include Mananchira Square, Sweet Meat Street, Palayam Market, Valiya Angadi, Kozhikode Beach, Regional Science Centre, Kappad Beach and Dolphin's Point which is a great place to watch dolphins playing early in the morning.

The backwaters of Calicut are a unique feature to Kerala. They are a network of canals, estuaries, deltas, and rivers that meander into the Arabian Sea. Fantastic for exploring and relaxing as well as visiting places of tourist interest such as the Lighthouse, Pazhassiraja Museum, Thusharagiri Waterfalls, Pookot Lake, Bird Sanctuary, Dolphin's Point, and the Lion's Park.

• Shopping

Sweet Meat Street is the busiest street in Kozhikode and derives its name from the times when the street was lined with sweetmeat stalls. One can pick up fancy clothes from the shops lining S M Street and Mavoor Road. There is a wholesale spice market at the Big Bazaar Road. The Comtrust Store off Town Hall Road sells handloom fabrics produced in the factory next door. Calicut is popular for its local handicrafts such as rosewood and buffalo horn carvings, coir products and miniature snake boats. The best places to get these are the supermarket on Mavoor Road and CSI at Mananchira and Big Bazaar at SM Street.
