• Location

Located in the coastal town of Mount Lavinia, which is just 12 kilometers south of the City of Colombo and 54 kilometers from the Bandaranaike International Airport, the hotel is easy to reach, yet away from the congestion of the capital. It is situated atop a rock and looks over the aquamarine waters of the Indian Ocean. The hotel allows direct access to the beach.

• Facilities

The hotel has a modern gym fully equipped with free weights, treadmills and exercise machines. One of the key attractions at the Mount Lavinia Hotel is its swimming pool which invites guests to take a cooling dip in its azure waters on a sultry tropical day. Pool-side entertainment has also made this a popular gathering place at the hotel. This is the ideal location to unwind and relax, in the pool or out, lounging on a comfortable easy chair with a refreshing cold drink in hand, lulled by the calming swell of the ocean in the distance.

If you are looking for relaxation with a healthy dose of serious pampering thrown in, look no further than the Coconut Spa, another popular feature at this colonial beach resort. The Coconut Spa is the height of luxury. You will get nothing less than the best in beauty treatments and massages. Highly skilled therapists will be at your service to provide an exceptional experience that will leave you glowing inside and out. The spa experience combines a passion for the Indian Ocean with Balinese culture, beauty therapy and cosmetics in a soothing and relaxing setting.

The Mount Lavinia Hotel has a fully equipped Business Centre with broadband Internet connectivity, computers, email and CD burning services, fax, photo copying machines and scanning machines.
