Oman Air forays into Greek Market Goldair Airline Services appointed Oman Air GSA

Date: 09 October 2016

Oman Air, the national carrier of the Sultanate of Oman, appointed Goldair S.A as its General Sales Agent (GSA) to the Greek market.

The event was celebrated in a reception atop historic Lycabettus Hill in Athens in the presence of Greek Travel agencies and media representatives whom enjoyed the friendly atmosphere and breathtaking view of the Acropolis.

Oman Air revealed its expansion plans into the Greek Market and its collaboration with Goldair S.A, its exclusive representative in Greece.

Abdulrahman Al - Busaidy, Chief Commercial Officer at Oman Air commented:

'We are absolutely delighted with the appointment of Goldair S.A and Oman Air's expansion into the Greek market. Our flight network is ever expanding and we are very much looking forward to transporting both corporate and leisure passengers from Greece and opening a new network for the market. We are sure that our relationship with Goldair S.A will be both long and fruitful.'

The Managing Director of Goldair Group, Mr. Kostas Tsovilis welcomed the entry of Oman Air to the Greek Market and stressed the importance of opening a new network for Greek market. The extensive network of Oman Air will greatly facilitate the movement of seamen as well as transport of corporate and leisure passengers.

The Regional Vice President of Oman Air for Europe, Mr Rogier de Jager underlined the major role Oman Air has played since its founding in 1993 in making Muscat a key traffic hub in the Middle East. Oman Air supports the Sultanate's commercial, industrial and tourism sectors.

The airline currently operates direct international flights from Muscat to Abu Dhabi, Bahrain, Doha, Dubai, Jeddah, Riyadh, Dammam, Madina, Tehran, Mashhad and Kuwait, in the Gulf region, as well as Cairo, Beirut and Amman within the wider Middle East/Africa region.

In addition, Oman Air flies to destinations in India, Bangladesh, Pakistan, Nepal, and Sri Lanka. The airline also flies to Bangkok, Singapore, Kuala Lumpur, Manila, Jakarta, Zanzibar and Dar Es Salaam. Its European destinations are London, Milan, Munich, Frankfurt, Paris and Zurich.

Oman Air's domestic destinations are Salalah, Khasab and sDuqum.

Also present at the event were Mr. Mourad Aoulad El Haj, Pan European & Offline Sales Manager for Oman Air, Mrs. Mary Grigoriadou, Commercial Manager for Goldair S.A and Mrs Evi Voudiklari, Public Relations Manager for Goldair Group.
