Oman Air Partners with Bangkok's Piyavate Hospital to Offer Health Care Discounts

Date: 15 Aug 2011

Oman Air has joined with Piyavate Hospital, one of Bangkok's leading health care centres, to offer the airline's customers an exclusive range of outstanding discounts and benefits.

Effective immediately, passengers flying with Oman Air from Muscat to Bangkok will, upon production of their boarding pass, be able entitled to a 50% discount on the regular cost of Piyavate Hospital Check-up programmes. In addition, they will receive a 20% discount against any advanced treatment, other than doctors' fees, special medicine costs, dental charges and personal expenses such as phone bills.

Announcing the new partnership between Oman Air and the Piyavate Hospital, Ahmed Hazeem Al Balushi, District Sales Manager, Oman Air, Bangkok said:

"We are pleased to be working with our new partners at the Piyavate Hospital in Bangkok to offer our customers the very best in private health care at significantly reduced prices. With discounts available of up to 50%, this arrangement is a further demonstration of Oman Air's commitment to offering outstanding value for all our passengers."

Oman Air offers daily flights between Muscat and Bangkok, with excellent connections from Muscat to a range of destinations across the Middle East, Europe, North and East Africa and South and South East Asia.

Piyavate Hospital is at the forefront of health care in Thailand and is a world leader in its areas of specialisation, such as women's care and heart health. Opened in 1993, it offers around 300 beds and the full range of supporting medical technology. The hospital's staff includes physicians certified in every area of medical specialisation by both American and Thai Boards. They are supported by highly qualified registered nurses and technicians.

Piyavate Hospital's Assistant Chief Business Officer, Thirachai Jotikabukkana, added:

"Piyavate Hospital's partnership with Oman Air gives passengers on Oman Air's Muscat to Bangkok service access to the very best available health care and medical services. Whether specific treatment is required, or just an all-round check-up, Piyavate Hospital's expertise, experience and care are now available at incredible discounts, exclusively to Oman Air's customers. We look forward to adding further great value and peace of mind to Oman Air's excellent service."

By showing their Boarding Pass, Oman Air passengers can purchase check up programmes, from an exhaustive list, at a special rate with 50% discount and can also avail a further 20% discount on most of the medical treatments. This offer is valid for Oman Air passengers until 31st December 2011.
