

Home > holidays > destinations > tanzania > zanzibar

Zanzibar

The archipelago of Zanzibar, which is made up by over 50 islands, is the ultimate Indian Ocean experience. As well as the fascinating historical Stone Town and magnificent beaches, Zanzibar offers world class watersports including scuba diving, snorkeling, deep sea fishing, kayaking, windsurfing, waterskiing and sailing on traditional local dhows. Tourists love the vibrant atmosphere that is influenced by the many cultures that make up its people.

Currency

Tanzanian Shilling (TZS)

Location

Zanzibar is located off the eastern coastline of Tanzania, and consists of three large islands and a number of smaller ones.

Climate

Zanzibar has a tropical climate that is subject to monsoon winds. February is the hottest month, while the rainy season runs from March to May. June to October is the dry season and temperatures at this time are pleasant, hitting on average around 30°C.

Flying Time

Flying time from Muscat : 5 hrs 25 min

Time Difference

GMT +3 Hours

Source URL: <https://www.omanair.com/holidays/destinations/tanzania/zanzibar>