Taybet Zaman

Category: ★★★★★

Location

Nine kilometers southeast of the entrance to Petra, this charming local property retains its distinct local flavor and remains one of the most evocative properties anywhere in the Middle East. Guests at this unique resort, set in a 19th-century stone village lovingly transformed into a rustic hotel by the country's tourism investment funds, are immersed in regional hospitality. Once a late 19th century Jordanian village, hotel features authentic village houses, located near the ancient city of Petra.

Facilities

The hotel has a swimming pool, health and fitness centre, Turkish bath, Arti Zaman souk, shops, laundry service, theatre (for 100 guests), photography shop, car parking, spice shop, traditional bakery, medical care and heliport. It also has a terrace cafe and a ballroom.
