Oman Air Restarted Non-Stop Flight Between Salalah and Dubai

Date: 8 May 2011

May 4 2011- Oman Air, The National Carrier of the Sultanate of Oman has restarted its services between Salalah and Dubai today. Salalah flights will operate twice weekly on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

To celebrate the resumption of the flights between Salalah and Dubai, a ceremony was organised at Salalah Airport Under the auspices of Sheikh/ Abdullah bin Saif Al Mahrouqi, Dhofar Deputy Governor and attended by local dignitaries, major travel agents, along with some senior management team of Oman Air.

Announcing this, Maitha Al Mahrouqi, Country Manager, Oman, said:

"Oman Air is very happy to relaunch the non-stop flights between Salalah and Dubai, which we are sure, will be appreciated and welcomed by the passengers and the travel-business community. This sector will boost the business and the tourism travellers from these two cities and is another step forward to strengthen the relation between the Sultanate of Oman and the United Arab Emirates. The initial response we got for our promotional fares to this sector has been very encouraging. Our prices start from 85 Omani Rials including taxes"

Oman Air Holidays has also come up with a unique package for those who wish to enjoy the two cities at their own pace and leisure. For more information regarding our unique holiday packages, visit www.omanair.com or call 24531000.
