Oman Air Marks a Successful Partaking in Muscat Festival

Date: 27 Feb 2011

Oman Air the official carrier for Muscat Festival 2011 has put up a colourful stall at the Qurum Natural Park, one of the two venues of this year's Muscat Festival.

The stall that has been attracting a lot of visitors gives valuable information on the destinations, frequencies of flights to some of the new destinations and ticket-related services.

The various stations of Oman Air have been actively promoting Muscat Festival through special packages for inbound travel to Oman. Oman Air's unique packages to enjoy the sights in and around Oman during this time have been attracting a lot of visitors especially from Europe where there is an increased awareness about Oman. There has been a tremendous response from travellers from other Gulf countries to visit Oman during Muscat Festival.

Oman Air Holidays had a special promotion for Muscat Festival for those travelling to Muscat from the GCC states, that included return ticket, two nights sharing accommodation on twin share, with breakfast at selected three and four star hotels in the capital area, as well as airport transfers. This offer could be availed by those travelling from Salalah, Kuwait, Abu Dhabi, Dubai, Bahrain, Doha, Dammam, Riyadh and Jeddah.

Among the destinations promoted this year at the Oman Air stall are Milan, Dar Es Salam, Malaysia and the soon-to-be-launched destination of Moscow. The visitors to the stall are offered a wide range of services including ticket-booking, booking confirmation, Frequent Flyer Programme updates and booking enquiries. The stall also gives a peek on the Oman Air services that has been winning it accolades from around the world.
