Oman Air Holidays have come up with unbeatable packages to Kuala Lumpur and Salalah valid until 31 March.

For just OMR 199 per person, the 3-nights Malaysia package that includes flight, hotel, transfers and taxes comes as a never-to-be-missed offer that is sure to be extremely popular with discerning travellers.

Nigel Stoker, General Manager, Oman Air Holidays says:

'We have partnered with the 4-star Seri Pacific Hotel in Kuala Lumpur which offers great ambiance and impeccable service to make the stay a memorable one. It is just a short walk from the Petronas Tower and the bustling shopping areas of Kuala Lumpur. Or for just OMR 34 extra per person, the stay can be upgraded to the popular 5-star Prince Hotel. The Malaysia package includes return flight on Oman Air's A 330 aircraft offering 34" pitch legroom with the best of in-flight entertainment; 3-nights twin-share at the 4-star hotel, return airport transfers with Meet & Greet, daily buffet breakfast; all airline taxes, and even free dinner on the last evening.

For those who want to travel closer to home, Oman Air Holidays have packages to Salalah partnering with the 5* Salalah Marriott Resort and the 5* Crowne Plaza Salalah Resort to offer residents of Muscat an opportunity to experience the enchanting city of Salalah with 5-star services and amenities. The Salalah Break Package includes return flights from Muscat, complimentary hotel transfers with a two nights luxury stay at one of the 5-star resorts on twin share basis and complimentary buffet breakfast.

Nigel Stoker says:

"The subtropical city of Salalah is an ideal and rewarding destination for those who wish to escape the hustle and bustle of Muscat. Unspoiled, delightfully lush and picturesque, Salalah boasts captivating archaeological remains registered as UNESCO World Heritage Sites and is the home to the prized and fabled frankincense trees. A haven for any nature enthusiast.

Packages start from OMR 99 per person at the Salalah Marriott Resort, and OMR 129 per person at the Crowne Plaza Salalah Resort, which also offers free buffet dinner every night.
