Oman Air's partnership with Booking.com delivers more for its guests

Date: 16 of Dec 2019

Oman Air, the national carrier of the Sultanate of Oman, now delivers easy access to millions of accommodation choices – and a new opportunity to earn frequent flyer miles – through its partnership with Booking.com, a world-leading site for reserving hotel rooms and other lodging.

To celebrate this new partnership, members of Sindbad, Oman Air's award-winning frequent flier programme, earn triple miles for accommodations made on hotel bookings through Oman Air's website by 31 December, 2019 and completed by 31 March, 2020.

Sindbad members will subsequently earn 1 mile for every US dollar spent via the co-branded site. Travellers can choose from over 28 million hotel rooms and other options in 228 countries to find their ideal place to stay for business and leisure travel – with no booking fees.

Paul Starrs, Chief Commercial Officer at Oman Air, said: "We are delighted to welcome Booking.com as a valuable new partner and make it easier for our guests to create the journeys of their choice while adding substantial value to Sindbad, our award-winning frequent flier programme. This is one more partnership initiative that improves our guests' travel experiences by offering an exceptional range of choices and frequent flyer miles, in addition to expanding our reach by targeting new customers by working with industry-leading partners".

Sindbad, Oman Air's, frequent flyer programme, has been voted the World's Leading Airline Rewards Programme at The World Travel Awards in 2018 and 2019. With more than 30 world-class partners across the globe, Sindbad offers generous mileage earning opportunities to its nearly 1 million members.

Ripsy Bandourian, Vice President of Partnerships at Booking.com, commented: "As our mission is to make it easier for everyone to experience the world, we're so pleased to be collaborating with Oman Air and enabling their frequent flyers to earn more miles with every trip they take. Whether it's a weekend getaway within the region or a once-in-a-lifetime adventure to a faraway locale, this partnership allows us to bring the diversity of choice and seamless experience we pride ourselves on to even more travellers".
