

Home > about-us > press-releases > oman-air-contributed-sponsor-ceremony-honoring-omani-women

Oman Air contributed as a sponsor To the ceremony Honoring Omani Women

Oman Air has contributed as a sponsor to the ceremony held to honor Omani women. His Highness Sayyid Haitham bin Tariq Al Said, heritage and culture minister, presided over the ceremony held at Al Bustan Palace Hotel.

In a statement, Sayyid Haitham said that Omani women have always played an important role in society and that Omanis are proud of the level of equality that Omani women enjoy, pointing at the leading roles played by women.

The ceremony was attended by ministers and undersecretaries and representatives of AGCC and Arab organisations. A total of 27 Omani women were honored during the ceremony which was organised by the Social Development Ministry.

An exhibition of women's products has been held on the sidelines of the ceremony.

On this occasion, the Ministry of Social Development granted an appreciation certificate and a trophy to Oman Air for its distinguished efforts and positive participation to upgrade the voluntary social activities to better serve the nation.

Source URL:

<https://www.omanair.com/about-us/press-releases/oman-air-contributed-sponsor-ceremony-honoring-omani-women>