Breathtaking Holiday Option At Khasab Oman Air Continues With Its Efforts To Boost Domestic Tourism

Date: 26 Apr 2009

Oman Air in continuation with its efforts to jointly promote Oman's domestic destinations along with the Ministry of Tourism comes up time and again with new packages to Oman's exotic and unique destinations, which in the long run will not only boost further tourism projects and investments, but also aids in the diversification of the nation's economy as well as providing employment to the eligible national cadres.

With crystal clear aquamarine waters offering great diving and snorkeling options and the clean beaches making an ideal choice for beach games and activities, the nearby jebels offer the perfect perch for hiking and rock-climbing. The inlet of sea snaking through ravines creates a feeling so special to this place.
